

Look Furniture Store to Hold Opening on Week-end

Grand opening of the Look Furniture store at 1317 Sartori Ave. will be held this weekend with prizes to be offered, Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m.

The concern is owned by Dave and Bettie Rosewater, who own a furniture business at 5500 S. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles, for 10 years.

Frank Miller, long time Torrance resident, of 1747 Juniper Ave., will be manager. He has been in the furniture business in Torrance for several years.

Store policy will be based on price, quality, service and terms, with the sales staff ready and able to advise on home decorating problems, Rosewater said.

EL CAMINO OFFERS OPERA REFRESHER

"Opera reading, recently added to the El Camino College music curriculum, will be offered for the second time during the spring semester," Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction, announced today.

Designed to provide experience in actual performance of various scenes to be chosen from the fields of light and grand opera, the course is offered under the instruction of Dr. Gordon Orme. It is comparable to opera workshops conducted on the campuses of the University of Southern California and the University of California at Los Angeles, the instructor noted.

STAGE MOVEMENT

Materials selected for work of the class are selected as far as possible to fit the interests, talents, and capabilities of the class members. Emphasis will be placed on performance elements such as stage movement, gesture, dramatic intensity, posture, and characterization, the course outline indicates.

Dr. Orme, who received his B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees at UCLA, returned to the campus this year following a year in Europe, where he continued his study of music.

GET REACQUAINTED

"The course is offered particularly for the benefit of people in the district who may have studied opera or who may be interested in opera," Dr. Orme emphasized.

Some of the works to be studied will be scenes from "Faust," "The Marriage of Figaro," and Menotti's "Amelia Goes to the Ball." Duets, trios, and other special numbers will also be offered.

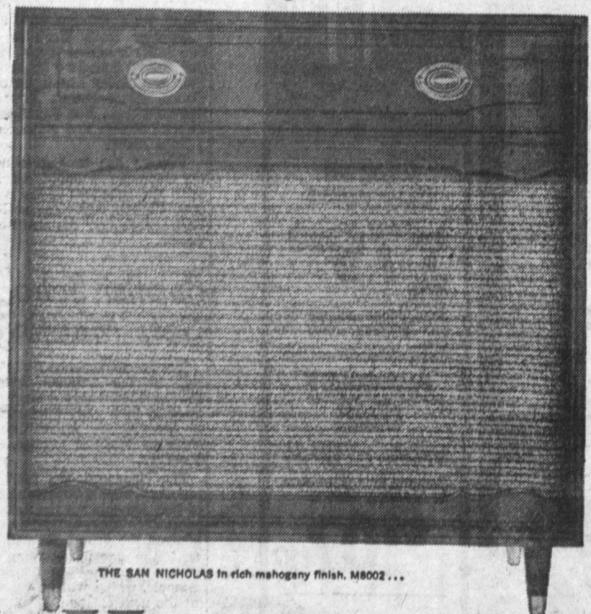

"Most of the selections will be done in the English translation," the instructor assured monolingual opera enthusiasts.

"At present," he continued, "we plan a summer production as part of the summer session activities. Emphasis is definitely placed on the educational value of the course rather than upon the actual performance. Since this is true, individual qualifications have a wide field of variation. All interested students, therefore, are welcomed."
